

San Joaquin County Revolving Loan Fund

To provide much needed financial resources to San Joaquin County's small businesses affected by the COVID-19 pandemic the San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors authorized the creation of a new loan program within its Revolving Loan Fund ("RLF") program entitled the Emergency Business Support Fund ("EBSF"). This low-interest, streamlined loan program features fully-deferred payment options and is designed specifically for small businesses determined to be "non-essential" and forced to curtail or shutter operations. EBSF loans are intended to provide working capital resources that will assist in maintaining the viability of impacted businesses during the stay-at-home orders imposed by federal, state, and local officials. On April 7, 2020, the Board of Supervisors capitalized the EBSF with $600,000, and delegated approval authority to the San Joaquin County Employment & Economic Development Department ("EEDD") which administers the County's Revolving Loan Fund ("RLF") program. All eligible, qualified San Joaquin County small businesses are urged to apply if they have been affected by COVID-19. Applications will be processed on a first-come, first-serve basis and because funding is limited, the EBSF program may be terminated without notice.

The RLF offers a Business Incubator Loan ("BIL") program for businesses who have been in operation less than two years.
